

25801041

Reg. No.....

Name.....

UNITARY LL.B. (THREE YEAR) DEGREE EXAMINATION, MARCH 2025

First Semester

UL 3 LAW OF CRIMES : PAPER 1—BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA (2024 Admission Regular)

Time : Three Hours

Maximum Marks : 75

Part A

Answer any five of the following.

Each question carries 3 marks.

1. Distinction Between Crime, Tort, and Contract
2. Common Intention and Common Object
3. Inchoate Offences
4. Organized Crime and Petty Organized Crime
5. Offences by or Relating to Public Servants
6. Theft and Robbery

(5 × 3 = 15)

Part B

Answer any three of the following.

Each question carries 10 marks.

7. A 12-year-old child was employed in a hazardous factory in violation of child labor laws. The employer frequently made the child work overtime and subjected him to inhumane conditions. One day, the child sustained severe injuries due to negligence at work. What sections of BNS can apply in this case ? Explain.

Turn over

25801041

8. A politician slapped a journalist in public for asking uncomfortable questions during a press conference. The incident was widely reported, and the journalist claimed he was publicly humiliated. Does the act of Politician act amount to an offence under BNS—Discuss.
9. During a murder trial, a key witness deliberately gave false testimony to protect the accused. Later, CCTV footage proved that the witness had lied under oath. Discuss his liability under the BNS.
10. A bookstore was found selling explicit adult content without proper authorization. A public complaint was filed, claiming the material was offensive and promoted indecency. Discuss the offences committed by the bookstore as per the provisions of BNS.

(3 × 10 = 30)

Part C

Answer any two questions.

Each question carries 15 marks.

1. Discuss the Legal Provisions on Waging War Against the Government of India and Offences Endangering Sovereignty, Unity, and Integrity.
2. Critically examine the provisions under the BNS relating to False Evidence and Offences Against Public Justice.
3. Examine the legal provisions under Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita related to offences affecting public health, safety, convenience, decency, and morals.

(2 × 15 = 30)

